

Istrian Peninsula Excursion

Sunday 16.10.2022

Drive through the almost mythical landscapes of central Istria to arrive to Rovinj, settled on the steep cliffs of a tiny peninsula on the west coast of Istria. Roam the winding cobbled streets of the colourful town accompanied by the guide all the way to the Basilica of St Euphemia surrounded by a beautiful park offering views of the Adriatic Sea. Enjoy some free time to stroll Rovinj's alleys and discover tucked away squares as well as many galleries and art shops. In one of the many native Istrian taverns with all its enchantments you can taste the real Mediterranean cuisine.

Located in the heart of the western coast of Istria is the city of Poreč, a former Roman colony. Discover its Romanesque architecture with beautiful Venetian gothic palaces that will make your walk a truly memorable experience. During the reign of the Byzantine emperor Justinian, the town reached its highest peak. This will become obvious once you see the Euphrasius basilica, a breath-taking sight included in the UNESCO's World Heritage list. Built in the middle of the 6th century in the Byzantine style, and the mosaics on its front and interior are truly one of the most beautiful works of art in the world!
