

Kvarner Bay Hilltop Towns

Monday 17.10. 2022

The diversity of the Kvarner region awaits to be discovered as this tour leads you away into the dense, lush woods of its hinterland where the undiscovered picturesque towns lie hillside still cultivating their customs and preserving the tradition. Embark on a tour of Opatija backcountry and visit its hidden natural gems and a family homestead offering delicious homemade products.

In the small, pretty hill-top town of Kastav you will find that the spirit of the place is rooted deeply in its stones. Defying all rulers and turbulent times, this city has preserved its rich history, geographical diversity, and interesting architecture. Climb slowly and safely to the old town bent around a hill, full of alleys and close-knit houses, stairs, arches, and vaults right up to the amazing panoramic view of the Kvarner bay.

Price per person: 42 EUR / 316,45 HRK

The package includes:

- Professional guide service
- Walking tour of Kastav
- Tasting of local products
- Return transfer from hotel

Duration: 14:30 – 17:30 (2:30PM – 5:30PM)

Kastav panorama

